Attorney J. T. Kingsbury and wife and children returned home yesterday from Nogales, where Mr. Kingsbury was called on a case in the Superior Court there. Mr. Kingsbury says he learned of a new route which cuts off about ten miles from the present route to Nogales. Leaving the White King ranch on the other side of Elgin one and one-quarter miles to the south, Mr. Kingsbury says, he was directed over a cut-off to Sonora used by the mail carrier in that section. The road is a good one, he says and shortens the driving time by at least a half hour, the entire driving time from here to Nogales having been but three hours and thirty minutes.

TUESDAY

DANCING PARTY.

The High School building was the scene of an enjoyable dancing party last night when the young folks of Tombstone gathered for an evening's pleasure in honor of the visiting boys and girls of the University of Arizona, former members of the local student body, and their guests. Music was furnished by the students, several of those now attending the university being former members of the High School orchestra. The affair was ably "chaperoned" by Prof. C. E. Tilford, who also frequently joined the orchestra besides looking after the many details of providing a good time for the dancers. Punch was served and the fully crowded made merry until midnight, leaving "the Prof." to worry about the closing details. At any rate the visiting students from the U. will go back to their studies with revived memories of the "old school days" at the Tombstone H.

CLOUDS—BUT NO RAIN.

A few clouds drifting around in the upper ozone stratus is all that indicates there is any chance for a change in the weather, and that is not very much.

TO PHOENIX.

Tombstone will send at least three novices to take the Shrine, at the big meeting to be held in Phoenix the 21st, 22nd and 23rd of this month. According to a telegram received this afternoon by H. Klausen, of Tombstone, another Tombstone pioneer has passed away, in the death of Fred Kluckow, for many years a resident of the Old Camp, who died shortly after 1 o'clock today at the county hospital in Douglas.

Kluckow was taken to the county institution about three years ago, suffering from the infirmities of old age, and up until several weeks ago seemed to have withstood his illness fairly well. When Mr. Klausen visited him three weeks ago, however, he realized that the end was near and asked that he be buried in the potter's field, and Mr. Klausen said today he is carrying out the wish of the old pioneer.

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon from the Curlee-Ames Porter establishment in Douglas. Mr. Klausen stated.

The deceased is well known by pioneers of Tombstone, having resided here for the past thirty years or more in a little cabin below the railroad tracks near the court house. He was a bachelor, and was a veteran of the civil war and drew a pension from the government. He was about 83 years of age and a native of Germany.

now on the card for the next improvement and the Commercial Club will ask the Board of Supervisors for the use of the old hospital site at the Board meeting next Monday.

A drawing of the trial jury for the next term of court to start the second week in February has been called for by Clerk J. E. James of the Superior Court through order entered yesterday by Judge Lockwood in Division 1 of the Superior Court. It is understood the court term will be short, only a half dozen criminal cases being on the docket.

DANCE SATURDAY.

According to those promoting the dance to be held in this city Saturday night at Legion Hall, a large number of out-of-town dancers will attend the affair, the drawing card being the El Paso Jazz, which will furnish the music for the evening. The largest out-of-town delegation will come from Bisbee, where the orchestra recently played two nights.

A STRONG PICTURE.

There is little doubt but what "The Cradle of Courage" with big Bill Hart in the lead will be a very satisfying picture the Crystal tonight as it is built around a good clean theme and big Bill carries a conviction that is impressive in itself. As stated before the new weekly news service known as the International News Service will begin tonight if the film arrives in time and will be on the regular Thursday night program from now on.

LOCAL LEASERS APPRECIATE LECTURE ON MINERALOGY.

The lecture delivered last evening at the Crystal theater by Chas. Farnett, mining engineer of the Arizona Bureau of Mines, on "Practical Mineralogy," was well attended by local leasers and prospectors, and also local cattlemen. The lecture was well delivered in plain language and featured by practical demonstrations, explained in a simple manner by the speaker. Pamphlets were distributed which will be of great aid to those wishing to take advantage of the various tests demonstrated by Mr. Farnett.

MEXICAN PLEADS GUILTY TO STEALING COW.

Pleading guilty in the Superior Court this morning before Judge Sames in Division 2, Antonio Garoba, a Mexican of Wilcox, was sentenced to serve from 1 to 3 years in the state penitentiary for cattle stealing.

Garoba and another Mexican named Refugio Negrete were brought in yesterday from Wilcox charged with having stolen a beef from the McKittick Cattle company. Both decided they wanted to plead guilty but when Sheriff Hood took them into the court room Negrete got cold feet and said that he did not help steal the cow but merely accepted some of the meat from Garoba through fear after Garoba had butchered the beef.

He will be tried at the next term of court.

DOUGLAS WOMAN

TAKEN TO ASYLUM.

Glady's Sanders, a Douglas woman, who was adjudged insane following a hearing in the Superior Court this morning, was taken to Phoenix this afternoon by Mrs. Phoebe Preston, matron at the county jail.

THE BEAST.

George Walsh will be at the Crystal theater tomorrow night in "The Beast." Here is an intensely dramatic story beautifully photographed and Arizona desert and mountain scenery, presenting George Walsh in a role of the caveman type that he enacts with extraordinary force and power, in which he is just as hardy as ever. While the action is intense and thrilling, bordering at times on the tragic, the regeneration of the beast beautifies and uplifts the picture to the level of the most exacting screen critic. Regular admissions.

MOVING.

John Kohlen recently returned from the Dos Cabezas country and has moved his family back to Tombstone and taken the cottage recently occupied by Harry Wheeler, on the hill.

SAW MASTODON.

A party composed of Court Interpreter John Igo and wife and daughter, Miss Clara, Mrs. Kate Igo and Hayden Taylor went down to Curtie Flat yesterday to get a view of the giant mastodon found there by government geologists. They report the trip well worth while, although a good view of the remains of the giant prehistoric mammal cannot be obtained, since Dr. Gidley, who is conducting the investigation is exercising great care in removing the bones from the earth, preserving them in plaster cast as soon as they are brought to light, in order that they may not deteriorate. A number of people went down today to "have a look" while others are planning a Sunday trip tomorrow.

It is necessary to walk about a mile, it is said, in order
